why it was so much better prices pre-

He said that because the Oregon growers were not so bound down with chat-

Mr. Lally, "they are paying from five

HAMILTON, JOB &amp; CO.

Interesting Object Lesson in Crude Banking Methods.CORVALLIS, Oct. 22.—W. T. Branch, the expert appointed to examine the books and accounts of the banking firm of Hamilton, Job & Co., for seven years past, has presented his report. The books of the firm were found to have been very carelessly kept. No trial balance of the general ledger had been made at any time, and any effort to balance accounts was made daily by computing the amounts received and the amounts disbursed, and any discrepancies were charged to the "long and short" account, which account, at the close of business June 9, showed a debit of $2,638.32. The capital stock of the house was $40,000, $18,400 of which was to the credit of Zephin Job and $21,600 to the credit of B. R. Job. The former, however, is indebted to the bank in the sum of $17,454, and the latter $7002.19.
The expense in the conduct of the business from January 1, 1887, to January 9, 1893, and chargeable to the expense account, is $28,925.44, and losses on long and short account are $2038.32. The revenues derived from the business were: From the interest fund, $29,- 105.16; from the discount fund, $955.57.
This amount ($30,060.73) shows the net profit of the house for 6½ years to have been $7096.96.All accounts or notes of the bank, whether good or bad, have been treated as good. There was invested in real estate $26,246.13, in which is included $4,976.88 for which the books do not give any information. The Niagara Mill company owes the bank a balance of $43,634.84. The Messrs. Job were the largest holders of stock in the mill and advanced money freely. The mill property will most likely realize very much less than it cost.The bills receivable account calls for notes to the amount of $102,709.77. An inventory of the notes found in the bank amounts to only $78,384.34, a shortage of $24,325.43. No records were kept of these notes, so it is impossible to tell what notes are missing. It is believed, however, that two notes, amounting to $13,500, given by Jacob & Neugass, were used to purchase half of the lot and building adjoining the bank building. The property was bought for $17,- 000 and these notes used in payment, but no record was made of the transaction. The same may be said of the purchase of the Cauthorn warehouse and the property mortgaged by T. J.
Blair to secure certain notes, and which was sold under execution to Messrs.
Job. No entries were ever made of these matters. These notes, together with a few hundred dollars of outlaid notes, will practically make up the deficiency.The expert is satisfied that no funds were diverted from the proper care of the bank by either of the Messrs. Job, except in the purchase of the mill property and its subsequent account, and the purchase of the real estate mentioned. The valuation set upon the assets of the firm by the assignee is upon the supposed depreciation always occasioned by the closing of any business, and shows a large deficit. The ultimate result as to the amount of the deficiency, says the report, will depend largely upon the careful administration of its affairs.

Not a Miracle, Now.

Until recently consumption was considered incurable, but now people are beginning to realize that the disease is not incurable. The cure of consumption is not a miracle, now. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure it, if taken in time and given a fair trial.
This world-renowned remedy will not make new lungs, but it will restore diseased ones to a healthy state when other means have failed. Thousands gratefully testify to this. It is the most potent tonic, or strength-restorer, alterative, or blood-cleanser, and nutritive, or flesh-builder, known to medical science. For weak lungs, spitting of blood, "liver complaint" and dyspepsia or indigestion, it is an unequalled remedy.TUTT'S PILLS cure constipation and piles.

stuck and was killed. And the bird still lives in the cage.

Is Life
Worth Living?That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure durmedical perfection.I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Furrowing Headache, it is the best mediother remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.

Preachers and Whiskers.

Whiskers was the chief subject of discussion at a rather informal meeting of the Ministers' alliance yesterday morning. When Dr. Armstrong appeared with a freshly shaven upper lip and a face as devoid of hirsute adornment as a new born babe's, the subject was found, and he was promptly called upon to address the alliance upon the "Rise and Fall of the Mustache." Dr. Armstrong told how he had cut off his mustache and nearly scared his little ones to death.
Upon being questioned he admitted that the operation was performed last Sunday night, but said that it was done for the good of his congregation and for the improvement of his voice. He wanted the word of God to proceed from the mouth clear and plain and distinct, unhindered by any obstruction. He closed his remarks by saying that he had sacrificed his beauty for the benefit of his congregation, and that he was aware that the more his face was covered the better looking he was.Dr. Tigert responded with a fervent "That's so," and Dr. Armstrong came back at him by saying he had already been mistaken for Dr. Tigert.Dr. Haley said he thought all ministers should either be smooth shaven or wear a full beard. The doctor himself supports a very luxuriant beard, slightly tinged with gray, and it was thought that his opinion might therefore be biased.
He urged all young ministers to shun the alluring mustache unless backed up with a crop of chin whiskers. A mustache, he said, looked unclerical.—Kansas City Times.

SELECTIONS

ONE WAY TO CROSS THE COUNTRY.

The Second Class Tourist Parties That Now Go Quickly, Cheaply and Merrily.It is now possible to cross the continent to San Francisco and make friends on the way and have as jolly a time as when you cross the Atlantic on a fast liner in the same number of days. That need not be so. The old way was to take a numbered seat in a sleeping car and go through with the chance that no one but the conductor and the train newboy would ever speak to you.The new way is by means of what are called tourists' excursions. They are run at second class rates, but on the fastest time and with special cars. The conductors will take a first class passenger if such a one should offer himself.There are at least two of these companies running personally conducted excursions over opposition lines, and both advertise very low rates and quick time.The cars are plenty good enough for anybody, but are not as ornate as the regular palace cars. In them the people start at New York or Boston and go through without change, eating their meals in dining cars out as far as Council Bluffs, if they want to, and stopping at dining stations along the rest of each route. A great many, who push to the farthest extreme that economy which is the distinctive characteristic of such carloads, carry their own fare with them in baskets and either buy nothing but tea and coffee or even make that for themselves on the road.The passengers in the first class coaches on the same trains are quickly made aware of the fact that their trains carry these tourist parties, for they hear the laughter and singing and romping of the tourists, who by the end of the second day out are all acquainted with one another and bent on having a jolly and fraternal time. They share their delicacies, their paper covered novels and their hopes and fears with one another, stream out of the cars in great parties when there is a long stop to gather flowers or to "take in a new town," and in all ways fraternize as though they had all known each other for years.The circular of one of these excursion companies announces that it "guards its patrons against the presence of the immigrant and the untidy" and against the intrusion of the way passenger.Everything that will contribute to the general pleasure is welcomed, but nothing offensive is tolerated. Some of the cars have smoking rooms, but if there is one without it the men must go forward to the regular train smoker to enjoy their pipes and cigars. A special conductor goes with each party and saves the tourists the annoyance of being awakened to show their tickets during each night.The tourist cars look like regular sleepers in the raw, being built on the same plan, but not finished with the same elegance. Unlike the immigrant sleepers, they are equipped with carpets, curtains, mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, pillowcases, towels, combs, brushes, etc., requiring nothing of the kind to be furnished by the passenger. Each car has a stove for the making of tea and coffee, and each section can be fitted with an adjustable table. A uniformed colored porter accompanies each car to make up berths, keep the car clean and to make himself useful.—New York Sun.

Anointed the Bridegroom.

There is a row in the fire department.
It grew out of a joke played upon one of the paid men attached to Hose 17, who was to be married last night.Before dressing for the ceremony he went to the bathroom to have a bath.
The boys had previously removed the lock from the door, and when he got into the tank they made their appearance and gave him a liberal painting with ointment used on horses' hoofs. His body was smeared with the sticky stuff, and then he was scrubbed down with brushes and water.A neighboring druggist was applied to, who recommended oil to remove the stuff. This only set the ointment all the harder, and the victim had to don his clothes and go to his wedding with his unique adornment.No formal complaint has yet been lodged at headquarters, but one will be when the honeymoon is terminated.—

The Royal Oak, first class British bat-will, it is expected, be ready to be handed over to the naval authorities by the end of October. Her length is 380 feet; beam, 75 feet; draft, 27 feet 6 inches, giving a displacement of 14,150 tons; her engines will give 13,090 horsepower, which is calculated to give her a speed of 17½ knots. She will be protected by armor 18 inches thick along the water line and 4 inches thick above, the armored bulkheads to be 16 inches thick, and the barbettes will be plated to a thickness of 17 inches. Her heaviest guns will be four 67 ton guns, but she will carry in addition a powerful armament of quick firing and machine guns and torpedo fittings. The Resolution and Revenge, of the same size and power, are also in process of completion at Barrow, and will probably be taken over from the builder before the end of the year.—

The Blacklist of Paris Tailors.

In Paris the Tailors' syndicate is preparing a new edition of their blackbook, which was originally published 17 years ago. The blackbook contains the names and descriptions of those persons who do not pay for their clothing. Once a man is inscribed in it he is unable to obtain clothing at any establishment unless he is prepared to pay cash before delivery.The work in question contains a number of curious details with regard to the delinquents' abhorred of tailors.Among them are 254 tradesmen and only 1 concierge; 185 commercial travelers to 2 priests and 2 antiquaries; 94 students to 3 translators, 3 hairdressers, 8 waiters and 3 house painters; 81 publicans, and, curiously enough, precisely the same number of journalists and men of letters; 72 professors, 50 engineers, 46 artists, 40 actors, 40 servants or waiters, 37 druggists, 36 financiers, 23 architects, 27 doctors, 27 jewelers, 24 workmen, 16 musicians, 14 persons of independent means, 12 bookmakers, 7 sculptors, 1 Egyptologist, 1 ex-mayor and 1 "negro."Even as it is, with the aid of the information given in this book, it is said that the Parisian tailors are cheated out of from 2 to 5 per cent. of the money due to them.—Paris Letter.A great many, who push to the and happy as a tramp, he is traveling now with one colored man, two monkeys, three bears, one lion, four pigs, 40 parrots, innumerable cocks and hens and a brand new Hungarian wife of extraordinary beauty.

A GOOD REPUTATION

Is often ruined by manufacturers, who, relying upon that alone allow the character of their goods to deteriorate. The
